National Sports Development Fund

1983. SHRI DWIJENDRA NATH SHARMAH: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have set up any National Sports Development Fund for achieving excellent performance in sports and providing specialized training and coaching to Indian sportsmen;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the steps which are being taken by Government in this respect?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) to (c) The National Sports Development Fund (NSDF) was instituted by the Government with a view to mobilizing resources from the Government as well as non-Government sources, including the private/corporate sector and Non-Residential Indians, for the promotion of sports and games in the country. The Fund was created in 1998 for the development of sports in the country, with an initial amount of Rs. 2.00 crore and with the following objectives:

(i) to administer and apply the moneys of the Fund for promotion of sports in general and specific sports disciplines and individual sportspersons in particular for achieving excellence at the National and International level;

(ii) to impart specialized training and coaching in relevant sports disciplines to sportspersons, coaches and sports specialists;

(iii) to construct and maintain infrastructure, as may be required for promotion of excellence in sports;

(iv) to supply equipment to Government and Non-Governmental Organizations and individuals with a view to promoting excellence in sports;

(v) to identify problems and take up research and development studies for providing support to excellence in sports;

(vi) to promote international cooperation in particular, exchange which may promote the development of indigenous sport and human resources as also the activities which are within the amount of Exchange Programme entered into between India and other countries; and

(vii) to provide low interest or interest free loans for projects and activities related to any of the aforesaid objects.

Contributions to the NSDF are entitled to 100% exemption from the payment of income tax. Moreover, a donor is permitted to indicate a project, along with specifics of the location and other aspects of funding and also an agency for the execution of the project while making donations to the Fund, subject to general policy guidelines and rules, if any, in this behalf.

Moneys made available under NSDF can be provided as assistance for various purposes for the promotion of the sports, including coaching/training of high performing athletes and medal prospects for major international events. Details of assistance provided to sportspersons from NSDF till date are given in the Statement.
